

Walkable Reading and the Trails Committee
7th Annual Winter Walk
Sunday, January 28, 2018

Winter has a lot to offer – fresh air and bright, clear skies. Come out for a breath of fresh air while getting some exercise by joining Walkable Reading and Reading's Trails Committee on a Winter Walk in Bare Meadow on Sunday, January 28 at 1 PM. See one of Reading's wonderful open spaces and have fun exploring the winter woods. And, after the walk, join us back at the Cabin for hot chocolate and snacks.

The walk is suitable for both children and adults. Meet at the Mattera Cabin, 1481 Main Street. From there a gentle trail leads up to the Meadow and a viewing platform. From the top of the Meadow, paths lead down and across to wooded trails.

Be sure to wear appropriate clothing and footwear for walking in the winter woods. If there is enough snow on the ground, then strap on your snowshoes or cross-country skis. We will keep an eye out for tracks of some of the critters that frequent the area. If you have binoculars, bring them along – you never know what we might see.

Check for any updates on Walkable Reading's and the Trails Facebook pages. If you have questions, you can email us at walkablereading@comcast.net.

Consider carpooling to the event. Parking is available at the Cabin and in the lot between 717 and 739 Pearl Street. (From there, it's a short walk across the Meadow to the Cabin.)
